

Fostering growth, quality, and velocity

There are over 850 active open source projects being hosted by the Linux Foundation.

52M+ lines of code

are generated every week by our project communities, up 13% year over year.

17K global organizations contributed to Linux Foundation open source projects in 2022.

The Linux Foundation open source community contributed to over 3.2 million project builds in 2022.

827K developers actively contribute to Linux Foundation projects, resulting in a 12% increase in 2022.

In 2022, the Linux Foundation acquired 321 new members.

Active member contributions increased 13% in FY22, and 148K were by new contributors.

LFX Security detected 264K code vulnerabilities in 2022, aiding faster fixes by developers.

10,700 applications for LFX Mentorships were received in 2022.

135K developers enrolled in training courses in 2022 and earned 26K certifications, an increase of 15%.

Events hosted by the Linux Foundation had a total of 188K attendees, an increase of 120% from the previous year.

$3.3 million in funds were raised this year through LFX Crowdfunding.